

Period Glasses

Privacy Policy –

We have updating our Privacy Policy to support and comply with the new EU data protection legislation, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Privacy has always been core to our philosophy at Period Glasses, and the changes we're making now will improve the transparency around our policies and reinforce our commitment to strong data privacy practices.

This privacy policy sets out how [Period Glasses] uses and protects any information that you give [Period Glasses] when you use this website.

Period Glasses is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

What we collect:

We may collect the following information:

- Name and Address from clients.

Please note that “Period Glasses” only collect information when you order glasses, all visitor to our website will not have any personal information stored or used by “Period Glasses” at any time.

Demographic information such as postcode, telephone numbers, and other information relevant to customer.

- Contact information including email address

We require your personal prescription from your optician, this information will be passed onto our optician to understand your needs and provide you with lenses, for your Period Glasses.

From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you for purposes of improving your order and returning email questions. We may contact you by Email or Telephone.

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable electronic and other procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.